Short Bio	A bold Summer Day gifted complement and contrast by a cool Summer Night... an abstract Impressionist's dream. These colors reach between two ends of an emotional spectrum, and the observer can lazily fall in or excitedly be taken. K explores a cold-wax and oil technique of layers in this "Summer Ensemble" collection which pushes and pulls the imagination. It beckons one to view the juxtaposition of colors as a dance of opposites.

Short Bio	Hope Angel is a local Pacific Northwest artist specializing in original acrylic paintings. Painting in her cozy, eclectic art studio in Seattle, she enjoys adding unique perspectives to her designs to make each piece truly memorable. The inspiration of the endless natural wonders that the Pacific Coast offers feeds her diverse and varied art, from seascapes and landscapes to abstract flowers and bridges, and much more. Often, she surprises herself with the finished product. Take an imaginary journey with her through her paintings as she explores the disappearing art of empathy through ironically colorful expressions. Coloring Outside the Lines since 2017

Short Bio	Local West Seattle self taught abstract acrylic painter. In my work, I like to engage primarily in intense, visceral abstract images that evoke emotion or dream-like state and those that appear to have an organic nature - particularly using bold colors and natural and electric light. I am fascinated with psychology, the subconscious and experience that are purely and powerfully aesthetic. I have been influenced by the work of abstract expressionist Mark Rothko and Jackson Pollock as well as James Turrell and some of the Color field painters.

Short Bio	Hi! I'm Dustin, a visual artist and musician living in West Seattle. I love creating abstract, abstract-impressionist, and surreal realms, as well as graffiti and street-art inspired works. I utilize a myriad of materials, including watercolor, spray paint, acrylic, clothing dye, alcohol ink, screen printing, lino block, photography, and digital. Most of my influences are music and film: black metal, extreme metal, industrial, minimalist darksynth techno, science fiction, horror, etc.

Short Bio	I am a 16-year-old acrylic on canvas painter merging realism with my imagination and using bright colors that pop. I am based out of Kirkland and sell my paintings in booths at art festivals across Western Washington. I took my passion to the next level by tackling large-sized paintings and murals, including a 4-foot by 7-foot mural installation in the clubhouse of Crossroads Par 3 Golf Course in Bellevue, WA. My biggest work to date is a 12-foot long by 4-foot tall tropical triptych, although prints of my work are available at many sizes and prices. I have recently started participating in art fairs and festivals and enjoy the business side as much as the painting itself.

Website	http://www.magdalenacooney.net
Short Bio	Despite being born into a repressive communist regime, Magdalena Cooney was destined to become a painter. Growing up in a children's puppet theatre, her parents provided a magical cocoon, creating an alternate world marked by whimsy, fantasy and larger-than-life characters. Self-taught Cooney credits her parents and their cadre of artist friends as her first and most important teachers. Her father, a set designer and puppet maker, and her mother, a graphic designer, influenced Cooney's ability to create amidst a culture of censorship. The theatre was always Cooney's "happy place," and she believes it is the reason her paintings lean towards the evocative, non-objective rather than specific. From an early age, Cooney was acutely aware of the competing forces of dark and light at play in her life. These contrasts are apparent in the opposing hues seen in many of Cooney's paintings. Her choice of color palettes also reflects her two homes: one echoes the famous red and orange rooftops of her birthplace, Czechoslovakia (now the Czech Republic), and the other is inspired by the cool grey and blue tones of her current home in Seattle, Washington. The contrast in colors moves through Cooney's paintings as she expertly blends and layers to create fascinating, sensual swirls of emotion and texture. In her latest experimentation, Cooney uses unusual painting tools to create her large canvases for a complex textured look. Not interested in shock value, Cooney says her paintings feel like home, a place in your heart that is precious and where you feel most like yourself.

Short Bio	Art is my happy place. It's where the kid in me comes out and plays with a variety of different medias. Using as much repurposed as well as natural materials as possible is not only a creative challenge for me but also reduces waste. The inspiration I draw from is a reflection of the love and respect I have for the natural world being a trained Horticulturist. I devote a lot of my work to featuring animal/plant species especially ones that are endangered and/or overlooked while adding a touch of whimsical humor to it. My passion for play and being resourceful makes for lively pieces with interesting textures, dimensions but more importantly adding a fun twist to a serious subject. I hope my work brings a smile to your face while inspiring you to

Short Bio	Since my artistic pursuit began, I was granted a handful of opportunities to display my work. My first took place in my late teens with my exploration of photography in the First Friday Wine and Dine in Missoula, Montana. I devoured all the classes I could during my senior year of high school. From there, I moved to Vancouver, Washington and Portland, Oregon, displaying pieces at the Snocum House and Pacific Northwest College of Art respectively. In recent years, I've been participating in West Seattle Art Walks, and am currently displaying a collection of my works at Caffe Fiore in West Seattle. Further experiences include commissioned pieces, tattoo designs and logos for local small businesses. In creating my pieces it is my goal to convey compassion and growth through tenderness. I am constantly inspired by nature and its connection to the human form. I've visited many mediums beginning with charcoals and graphite, and then moving on to acrylic, watercolor, and ink. In the past year, I've dived into more manual works such as linocuts and stamps. Recently I've returned with new knowledge and experience to the crisp allure of ink drawing, combining simple images with complex textures in each piece.

Short Bio	Lately there has been so much uncertainty and stress in our lives. Before the pandemic, I'd been painting en plein air a lot when I traveled, but then travel halted and I found myself more attracted to "innerscapes" instead of landscapes. My recent work is a reflection of turning inward and trying to embrace the new normal we find ourselves in with social distancing and working from home. While still inspired by nature, some of my work in 2020 and early 2021 has been more abstract and reflective. Several pieces are abstracted versions of a micro-view of the insides of things, such as geodes or flowers, and others are an exaggerated macro-view, much like an aerial photograph of a beach or other landscape. I am also happily painting on location again as time and travel permits. Recent shows  Landscapes (online exhibition), Las Laguna Gallery, February 4-27, 2021  Winter Show (online exhibition), Plein Air Washington Artists, December 5, 2020 - January 31, 2021  Verity Credit Union, Seattle, December 2020-January 2021  West Seattle Art Walk, Mailboxes West, West Seattle, April-July 2020  Uncorked (juried group show), Moses Lake Museum &amp; Art Center, Moses Lake, January-February 2020  Ballard Art Walk, Merrill Gardens, Seattle, January 2020  West Seattle Art Walk, Verity Credit Union, West Seattle, December 2019  On the Surface: Textiles + Textures (group show), Magnolia Art Experience Narthex Gallery, Seattle, October-November 2019  West Seattle Art Walk, Re/MAX Junction, West Seattle, October 2019  The Nutty Squirrel Gelato Magnolia, Seattle, September 2019  Ballard Art Walk, The Commons, Seattle, September 2019  A Community Inspired (group show), Magnolia Art Experience Narthex Gallery, Seattle, 2019  Fainting Goat Gelato, Wallingford, Seattle, August 2019  Magnolia Art Walk, Nutty Squirrel Gelato, Seattle, July 2019  ArtUp Phinneywood Art Walk, The Nutty Squirrel Gelato, Seattle, June 2019  Ballard Art Walk, Merrill Gardens, Seattle, June 2019  Fremont Art Walk, The Fainting Goat Gelato, Seattle, May 2019  Fremont Art Walk, Saturn Building, December 2014-January 2015 Permanent displays  Painting, General Hospital, Eureka, California  Ceramic sculpture, Purchase Award recipient, University of California, Davis, 1993

Short Bio	Hi, I have a LGBTQ owned online print on demand shop. I create unique, gay, sassy and fun custom designed t-shirts, tank tops, hoodies. My idea is to show my prints on the shirts and make the products available to order on the website. My goal is to raise awareness, spread positive vibes and promote conversations visually about the LGBTQ community and allies, not only during pride events but going about our every day lives. Thank you for your consideration!
